We mingled freely with the people last court day, and listened attentively to the talk concerning the selection of delegates, for this county, to attend the Congressional Convention, which is soon to be called to select a standard bearer for Congress in this district.

All agree that the delegates should be selected by the popular vote of the county, and to obviate the necessity of calling the people out a second time a poll should be opened at the August election, and that each Democratic voter can indicate who is his preference to represent him in the next Congress.

If Jones be the choice of the true Democracy let them say so, and upon the contrary, if Judge Arthur is their favorite, let them say so.

Fair play is a jewel, gentlemen, and you who call meetings for the party, fix it so that the people can speak and not the tricksters, and cliques, and rings, who have fastened their fangs upon the party.

The Jones-ites hereabouts, have gone into contempt. They hope and pray that the Democracy of Harrison will endorse Jones, that they may have it to say, that Federalism and Yankeeism may be endorsed—that it may be said that our people are a set of puppies and hounds, who will kiss the boot that kicks them, or lick the hand that slaps them—that the vandalism which were perpetrated in our county during the war, shall be applauded—that old-fashioned Democracy shall become a hiss and by-word. We are informed that a man in Cynthiana, who was a Union-howling Federal or the ultra-Lincolnite stripe and it is said wanted to raise a Yankee regiment to fight and kill, and destroy the people of this county and country, and who is now, in his own estimation only, a great Democrat, asserts that if the Democracy of this county hold a primary election, that it will split the party. That is to say, that these Jones-Union howlers intend to run Jones for Congress any how, nomination or no nomination—that they are afraid to go before the people of Harrison, knowing as they do, that they and their weather-cock candidate will be repudiated. Yes, dear reader, these Jonesites are determined that you shall vote for their choice, right or wrong—with all of Jones' political filth hanging upon him, because, as we hear that they say, that they carry the Democratic party in their pockets. Think of that, fellow citizens. You are told to your face that you have not enough sense to make a choice for yourselves, but that the clique and the ring, have all the wisdom concentrated in their bodies. When we are carried in any man's pocket, we want to be handled carefully, and that too by a man, who has not been out of the Lincolnite camp long enough to have had the smell of the free-nigger washed off from him. And what is still more laughable, ridiculous and absurd, that because the old time-honored Democratic principles, that the people should rule, and that any reference of any mooted question to the people for their decision should split the Democratic party, is certainly an extraordinary assertion. The Democratic party to-day would have been better off had the man who made that assertion remained with his original Radical friends, and whenever he desires to split the party, a meeting shall be called, and a vote shall be taken, granting him full permission to go back to his old friends; but he must not expect to carry any true Democrat with him; and he must not expect by assertions about splitting the Democratic party, &c., to gain their attention long enough to work any of his Union-whangdoodle notions in our "party-pudding," for heavier mailed warriors than those we have in our mind's eye just now, have attempted it, and been wrecked.

A fair hearing must and shall be given to the people of this county. No other will suit. When the people declare their preference, then we can submit, but we will not be ruled by two or three men, whose Democracy we know to be questionable—and whose radicalism we have felt and experienced to the bitterest extreme. Persecution was their cry in 1861, and we hear distant murmurings of the same just now. "Lay on McDuff, and d—d be he who first cries, hold, enough."

It has been intimated by the Radicals that unless the Fourteenth Amendment is adopted, and its provisions carried out, that the States thus failing to acknowledge the right of the nigger to vote and enjoy all the privileges of a white man, shall be excluded from representation in the electoral college, or in Congress. The white people can never submit to negroize this country, to please a few higher-law worshippers, and they never will adopt a proposition so obnoxious. The Radicals may threaten to exclude a State from representation, until by and by the people will exclude themselves without an invitation from the usurpers, and it will be so common that the rotten old concern will be compelled to change hands to sustain its being. The mischievous policy which these negro-worshippers have adopted to sustain their sinking fortunes, is in harmony with the acts of tyrants and oppressors everywhere. They cannot sustain themselves nor the government which they have nearly destroyed, without a resort to vandalism.

But they dare not exclude Kentucky and Maryland, on an amendment to the Constitution, which depends upon the next November election for the existence it must have hereafter; and as certain as this life is real, and that we, as a people are not dreaming, this amendment will be defeated and set aside.

The issue in the race between Seymour and Grant is, to a certain extent, entirely upon the point:

Shall this government continue a white man's government, or shall it be negroized?

Are negroes better than white people?

Have they got more mind and more enterprise than white people?

Did our forefathers suffer and fight for seven years, that the negro should possess the country?

Have we, as a people, no more self-respect than that we should equalize ourselves with the negro—introduce him into the pulpit, the parlor, and the rostrum?

And all this we should carry out because a few crazy lots from Massachusetts have declared that it shall be so.

They shall live to be disappointed—and no State will ever be excluded from representation on the 14th, or any other amendment, which has ever originated with that squad of scalawags.

The leader of the Jones party, in this county, (whose Democracy, we consider, is not worth a fig,) asserts that it is the duty of the party to induce and return Mr. Jones to Congress, that Mr. Jones has always been a true man to its principles; that we owe it to ourselves inasmuch as it has been the time-honored custom of the party to do so.

We assert boldly and defiantly that the true Democracy has no set mode or manner of doing business. She acts independently of all programmes laid out for her when she wants to, especially does she do so when she sees that aspirants have sneaked out of other organizations into hers, for their own aggrandizement. In time she will repudiate all such. Mark the prediction.

If the above assertion were true, why was it that our fellow-citizen A. H. Ward was not endorsed with a second term? Mr. Ward demeaned himself well, while in Congress, and is certainly a much superior man than Jones is. We risk nothing in saying that Mr. Ward has more brains of the right kind, than fills the heads of two such as Jones. The very men that are now attempting to foist Jones upon the party, ignored Mr. Ward. Harry Ward is a truer Democrat to-day than Jones ever was. Jones has been a political bag, to our own knowledge, for the past fourteen years. He has received more from the party than his small calibre deserves, and we know that the true and tried will ask him to "stand back a little Mr. Maloney, if you please."

Again, we are informed by the same source that Judge Arthur ought not to have resigned his position. Did not one of the purest and best Democrats in Harrison county do the same thing? Does any one censure our friend, J. S. Boyd for asking his fellow-citizens to boost him a notch higher? Certainly not. He has been weighed in the balances and not found wanting. He has been true, and his political associates intend to honor him for his fidelity. Judge Arthur has also been true, and all the clap-trap of his traducers too injure him with his party will recoil upon their own heads.

The true Democracy intend to instruct their delegates to vote for him at the approaching primary election, because they know that he is true and faithful, and is the choice of the party at long odds.

We believe in yielding to the voice of the majority. The people believe in the same. We believe that a few individuals with their "fly traps" open at every meeting, should not forestall and controul public opinion. The public believe the same. The people ask the Executive Committee to permit them to say who they are in favor of for Congress at the August election. Is it not fair, open and manly? None but a trickster can object to it, and we call upon the party to watch all such. Mark them for the future.

We notice from the Louisville Democrat that the Democracy of the Louisville district has called a convention of the party to meet at Lawrence, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

The Democrat says that the party must be wise, and select its ablest man. That is right. We must do the same thing in this district, and without any disparagement to any other individual, we must be permitted to say that we believe Judge Arthur is the sprightliest and perhaps possesses the most active brain of any man in the district. We are for him.

The Diversburg (Tenn.) Gazette contains the following, which may be valuable to those of our friends who are growing tobacco:

If you will plant a few Jamestown weeds in your tobacco fields and will sweeten with sugar one pint of water and then put one ounce of cobalt into the water, and then drop four drops of this mixture into the bloom of the Jamestown weed, you can kill every tobacco fly on your place ere they hatch worms. So says Mr. Wm. Moore, of this county, who has tried it for many years, with the most gratifying results. By destroying this pestiferous fly, you can raise your tobacco crop with one-tenth the labor and attention now required.

They shall live to be disappointed—and no State will ever be excluded from representation on the 14th, or any other amendment, which has ever originated with that squad of scalawags.

They shall live to be disappointed—and no State will ever be excluded from representation on the 14th, or any other amendment, which has ever originated with that squad of scalawags.

President Johnson has become dissatisfied with the Constitution; that portion which provides for the election of President. He recommends that the electoral college be done away with entirely, and that the people should have a fair chance to elect any man they delight to honor—that the popular voice of the people should be heard.

We are not able to give an opinion as to the propriety of a change in the Constitution in that respect. That instrument has already been manipulated too much, and it seems that every party that is successful before the people, must tinker with the Constitution, for the purpose of making it harmonize with their miserable notions of national policy. We are opposed to all people, who put their unworthy hands on that instrument, either for its violation, change or amendment. We are opposed to the crew who have already proposed to change it to suit their especial ideas, and we oppose their revolutionary principles.

The President desires also to change the Constitution with reference to the term that a supreme judge shall hold his office—that a judge shall hold his office for twelve years only.

That is a matter that does not effect the people, how long or how short a man shall remain in office, especially as a judge of the supreme court. We incline to the opinion, however, that the judges on our supreme benches should remain there during life or good behavior.

The people of the United States should cease to elect men to office, who make office hunting a business—who beg an office from the people and become pensioners to their bounty.

Let the office hunt the man, and when such a man fills a position he will honor his place, the people and the country. Such a man will never be dissatisfied with the Constitution.

THE NEWS.
Cynthiana, Ky., July 23, '68.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SF. Gillman shipped 750 head of sheep last week for Boston, mostly from here.

Last Saturday, the people of this country were blessed with a splendid fall of rain.

Miss Annella Small called to see us last week. She is the prettiest baby in Cynthiana.

The corn in Harrison looks better than we believed it could, with the scorching sun falling upon it. But it looks green and stout.

Last Saturday, Mrs. Friar was sun-struck and killed, while on her way from Campbell county to Butlers Station.

A tree fell across the railroad between Boyd's Station and Falmouth last Saturday, which detained the trains a short time.

Radicals of the Mt. Sterling district have called a convention to meet in Maycville on the 3d of September, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress.

Henry Johnson, colored man, of this city, sold a piece of property on Pleasant below Main street, to Mr. McCarty, for $2,872.

Robert Hayman's brick-cart, driver and horse, all hands, fell over an embankment near Cook's distillery last Saturday. Nobody was killed.

We apologize to Col. Stodard Johnson, for asserting in our last week's issue, that he was the editor of the "Commonwealth." It should have been the "Yeoman."

Democracy of Harrison will meet next Thursday night at the court house, for the purpose of organizing a Seymour and Blair club. Let all attend.

Last week, Jacob Reneker, jr., of this county, purchased 7 head of thoroughbred 2-year old cattle, each of which weighed 1,250 pounds. They are for stock cattle, for which he paid 7 1-4 cents per pound, and are splendid in looks. Mr. G. Sparks, of Bourbon, raised and fed them, from whom they were purchased.

Strayed or Stolen.

FROM the subscriber's stable on the night of the 16th of July, a bay pony with a long, black mane and tail, and has a scar on his right hind quarter. Any person finding said pony, will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at my stable in Cynthiana.

July 23-24 THOS. LOWRY.

THE Harrison County Court having been petitioned by a number of persons asking for the establishment of an additional precinct in this county, complaining of hardships and grievances under which they labor. For remedy whereof, and in conformity with provisions of an act of the Legislature approved 7th March, 1868, it is adjudged by the court that a Justice District be established in this county, bounded as follows:

Beginning at the corner of Robertson county opposite Claysville, thence up the river to the Buena Vista district, thence with a line of said district far enough to include Stephen Whalen and Richard Turner, thence to John Stewart's, thence to the new meeting house on the head of Daniels Lick, thence down Daniels Lick to main Harrison creek, thence down Harrison creek to the head below Samuel C. Rankin's house, thence to the Falmouth road at C. P. Price's, thence with the Falmouth road to the Pugh's Ferry road, thence with said road to the Worrell's mill road beyond Samuel Downard's, thence up said road to Worrell's School house, thence with Worrell's line to Licking river, thence up said river to the Bracken line, thence with the Bracken line to the Robertson line, thence with the Robertson line to the beginning.

That said precinct be known as precinct No. 8, and called the Claysville precinct, and the house of Eliza Jackson, in Claysville, is fixed as the place of voting, and it is ordered that at the next August election a Justice of the Peace and a Constable be elected, the Justice elected to hold his office until the next general election of Justices of the peace and the constable elected to hold his office until the next general election of constables. That the name of the precinct No. 3, heretofore known as the Claysville precinct, be changed to the Richland precinct and the place of voting remain as heretofore, and be still No. 3, and at the next August election shall elect a Justice of the peace who shall hold his office until the next general election of Justices of the peace.

SF. Gillman shipped 750 head of sheep last week for Boston, mostly from here.

Last Saturday, the people of this country were blessed with a splendid fall of rain.

Miss Annella Small called to see us last week. She is the prettiest baby in Cynthiana.

The corn in Harrison looks better than we believed it could, with the scorching sun falling upon it. But it looks green and stout.

Last Saturday, Mrs. Friar was sun-struck and killed, while on her way from Campbell county to Butlers Station.

Atree fell across the railroad between Boyd's Station and Falmouth last Saturday, which detained the trains a short time.

Radicals of the Mt. Sterling district have called a convention to meet in Maycville on the 3d of September, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress.

Henry Johnson, colored man, of this city, sold a piece of property on Pleasant below Main street, to Mr. McCarty, for $2,872.

Robert Hayman's brick-cart, driver and horse, all hands, fell over an embankment near Cook's distillery last Saturday. Nobody was killed.

We apologize to Col. Stodard Johnson, for asserting in our last week's issue, that he was the editor of the "Commonwealth." It should have been the "Yeoman."

Democracy of Harrison will meet next Thursday night at the court house, for the purpose of organizing a Seymour and Blair club. Let all attend.

Last week, Jacob Reneker, jr., of this county, purchased 7 head of thoroughbred 2-year old cattle, each of which weighed 1,250 pounds. They are for stock cattle, for which he paid 7 1-4 cents per pound, and are splendid in looks. Mr. G. Sparks, of Bourbon, raised and fed them, from whom they were purchased.

Maj. W. A. Coffey, a delegate to the National Convention, from the Madison district, passed through Cynthiana, enroute for his home last week. He came through Washington city, and reports everything satisfactory in that region.

Mr. Ed. Hutchison, who resides at Tricun, in this county, has an apple tree on his premises, which bears fine apples in a cluster, after the manner that grapes grow. The tree is literally covered with clusters. We acknowledge the receipt of a sprig.

A laborer, while working in an excavation in this city, fell over and seemed from his acts as if about to give up the ghost. It was supposed that he was sun-struck, but we are pleased to learn that he was whisky-struck.

Col. Wm. C. P. Breckinridge has retired from the editorial chair of the Lexington Observer & Reporter, and Mr. Geo. W. Ranck, has been elected to succeed him. Col. Breckinridge is a fine writer, and he edited the Observer with ability.

Last Monday morning there were 33 car loads of cattle passed through this city to Covington, the largest train that has passed here for six months, and leaving some six car loads at this depot without transportation.

D. A. Givens says: his accounts are now due, or rather past due and that he takes no pleasure in duning his patrons. All persons in arrears will therefore call and liquidate their indebtedness without delay, as the money is needed and must be forthcoming.

Manufacturers of

Mattresses, PILLOWS,

CHURCH CUSHIONS.

OFFER THE

Elastic Sponge

—AS—

Superior to the Best Curled Hair,

FOR ALL

Upholstery

OR

BEDDING.

THIS Company owns the right for Middle and Southern Ohio, Indiana, and Northern Kentucky. As every mattress is made at the company's Principal depot, in Cincinnati, we will guarantee their quality.

We do not sell the Mattress or Pillow Sponge except in manufactured goods.

Upholsterers' orders filled for Elastic Cushion Sponges, in bales, for Furniture and carriage upholstery.

Special estimates made for cushioning churches, halls, &c.

Discounts made to the trade.

The Advantages Claimed by us for Elastic Sponge, over Curled Hair or Feathers, are as follows:

1st. Its superior and permanent elasticity, which is not in the least affected by changes of temperature, nor by any reasonable lapse of time.

2d. Its unrivaled cleanliness. It is entirely free from insect life, from dust, or any source of decay.

3d. Its cheapness. It goes further in the manufacture of upholstery than any substance now used. It is obvious that the purchaser gets the benefit of this economical quality.

4th. Its healthiness. Feathers and hair being animal substances, exhale a characteristic and well-known odor.

After a continued and thorough trial of three years and a half by many of the best upholsterers in the United States, we feel authorized by their concurrent testimony in asserting that we can now supply that great desideratum—an unexceptionable good bed at a moderate price.
